Is this form for you?

Use this form to apply for an individual tax number (ITN) from the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). An ITN is a nine-digit number issued to non-resident individuals who need an identification number but who are not eligible to obtain a social insurance number (SIN).

Who can apply

You can apply if you do not have, and are not eligible to obtain, a SIN but you need to provide an individual tax number to the CRA. For example, this could occur if you are:

- an international student (without a work permit) who either has to file or intends to file a Canadian income tax return. International students with a work permit should contact Service Canada directly to obtain a SIN. esdc.gc.ca/en/reports/sin/apply.page
- a non-resident filing an application to waive or reduce Canadian withholding tax;
- a non-resident disposing of taxable Canadian property; or
- a non-resident who has to file or intends to file a Canadian income tax return

Note: Do not complete Form T1261 if you already have an ITN, a SIN, or a temporary taxation number.

When to apply

Complete this form as soon as you meet the requirements described in "Who can apply" on this page. Apply early to make sure you receive an ITN before you need to use it. Allow four to six weeks for us to notify you in writing of your ITN. If you have not received your ITN at the end of the six-week period, you may call us to find out the status of your application (see "Telephone help" on this page).

How to apply

If you are completing Form T1261 for the purpose of:

- filing an income tax return;
- filing an application to waive or reduce Canadian withholding tax on payments that you receive; or
- disposing of taxable Canadian property;

make sure you:

- complete sections one (1) to five (5) on the application;
- provide the date and your signature in the certification section; and
- include original, certified, or notarized copies of your supporting documents.
